All individuals were confirmed to have primary residences of record within the federally declared disaster zones. Many addresses were confirmed through satellite picture to be completely underwater. Most individuals requested assistance in excess of what the foundation was able to provide. Thus grants were provided to each individual who met all requirements. Requests were denied for assistance with second homes and people who did not live within federally declared disaster areas. All grants were provided only for immediate needs requests such as food, clothing, and shelter.
