Supplemental Statement Regarding Reported Compensation: Part V-A, Schedule A Part I

A substantial portion of the compensation reported in Part V-A, Column (C) for David Lincoln and Joel DiTrollo and in Schedule A, Part I, Column (C) for Susan McDonough and Thomas Lucas (the "Executives") represents amounts paid in 2006 in connection with a restructuring of supplemental executive retirement benefits for the Executives approved by both the Compensation Committee and the Board of Directors and effected in late 2005.

In 1998, The Board of Directors of Covenant Health Systems, Inc. ("Covenant") approved and adopted a supplemental executive retirement program for the Executives that was intended to provide a specified level of retirement benefits to each Executive at retirement age commensurate with comparable retirement benefits provided to executives with comparable responsibilities by similarly situated organizations. At that time, Covenant purchased a split dollar life insurance policy on the life of each Executive. Under the terms of the policies and associated agreements with the Executives, Covenant agreed to pay the premiums on each policy until the Executive reached age 60, or the earlier termination of his or her employment with Covenant, and Covenant would be repaid for all of its premium payments out of the death benefit upon the Executive's death or out of the policy's cash value upon the earlier termination of the policy. The Executive assigned the policy to Covenant to secure that repayment obligation. The policy was intended to grow to have a cash value sufficient to allow the Executive to withdraw a certain amount upon retirement that would provide amount of retirement benefit approved by the Board.

In 2005, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Covenant determined that it was not cost effective for the Organization to continue to fund the approved benefits to the Executives through the above-described split dollar life insurance arrangements. In particular, the Committee determined that the cash values of the policies were not projected to provide the board approved level of benefits to Executives upon retirement. During 2005, Covenant's Compensation Committee worked closely with a nationally-recognized independent executive compensation consulting firm to determine how best to restructure the arrangements to provide the originally approved level of benefits in a cost-effective manner. The Compensation Committee concluded that it would be beneficial to terminate the split dollar life insurance arrangement, and instead fund supplemental retirement benefits for each Executive through a payment to the Executive that is placed in a grantor trust for his or her benefit. The split dollar life insurance policies were terminated in late 2005, and in early 2006 Covenant funded the grantor trust for each Executive with the cash value received upon termination of the policy for each Executive, together with a supplemental payment calculated by Covenant's independent compensation consultant to be sufficient to provide the approved retirement benefit (pro-rated based on the Executive's age as of 2005). Under the terms of each grantor trust, amounts contributed to the trust are held for the benefit of the Executive until he or she reaches age 60, at which time they are released to the Executive. The full amount paid by Covenant into the grantor trust is taxable to the Executive when paid, and is included in the Executive's reported compensation.

In December 2005, in accordance with the recommendations of the Covenant's independent nationally recognized compensation consultant, the Compensation Committee approved the following contributions to fund the supplemental retirement benefit determined to be reasonable based on comparability data reviewed by the Compensation Committee in 1998 when the plan was established and in 2005 when the plan was restructured. The actual contributions were made in January 2006.

- The grantor trust for the benefit of David Lincoln - $1,265,425
- The grantor trust for the benefit of Joel DiTrollo - $2,033,727
- The grantor trust for the benefit of Susan McDonough - $402,514
- The grantor trust for the benefit of Thomas Lucas - $1,142,222

As noted above, the Covenant Compensation Committee received advice with respect to the restructuring of the supplemental executive retirement arrangements from a nationally recognized executive compensation consulting firm, who advised that the supplemental retirement benefit provided by Covenant is reasonable and comparable to that provided by other similar organizations to executives with similar responsibilities. The restructuring of the supplemental executive retirement arrangements, including the termination of the split dollar life insurance policies, the establishment of the grantor trusts and the payments to the grantor trusts described above, was approved by Covenant's Compensation Committee and its Board of Directors. The approvals are documented in minutes of meetings of such bodies.
