The Western Association of Educational Opportunity Personnel (WESTOP) is one of ten regionally based associations that comprise the Council for Opportunity in Education. WESTOP membership is comprised of educators from the state of Arizona, California, Nevada, Hawaii, and the Pacific Islands. The WESTOP organization represents higher education, secondary schools, community based agencies, and professional groups and associations who serve first-generation college-bound and educationally disadvantaged youth. It also serves the minority, physically impaired and learning-disabled populations. The purpose of WESTOP is to bring together individuals and organizations interested in furthering educational opportunities for college students and potential college students from disadvantaged backgrounds.
