Attachment to Return
Statement of Reasonable Cause – Late filing of Form 990

The organization is a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the State of Wisconsin. Its exempt purpose is to educate children in the ways of Christ through Catholic based curriculum and prepare them academically and spiritually for success in life, organized solely for educational purposes. The organization receives most of its funding from either contributions or their programs. It does not receive any funding from charitable organizations.

We respectfully request abatement of any potential penalties that may be assessed. The return was not timely filed because there was an administrative mix-up regarding filing a return for the year in question. As a result, no return was filed for June 30, 2008. Once it was recognized that a return was not filed, we immediately gathered the necessary information to complete the return. The late filing was not intentional and as such please accept this return as a timely filed return.
