inquiry through the organizations represented on the NOCSAE Board of Directors, and other entities in the fields of athletic and sports medicine.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 10: The 990 is submitted to the executive committee for review. This committee consists of the president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and executive director.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: Conflict of interest within the scope of the role of the organization would relate to equipment design, grant funding, or enforcement of license fee payments. Consequently, the potential for conflict is quite narrow, and easily monitored when those issues come up for discussion. Additionally, the organization requires that all grant applicants disclose any potential conflicts of interest in the grant approval process, this is the area which presents the greatest chance of significant conflict of interest. This is also the area which is most easily monitored, since the company can solicit conflict input from both the applicant and from the board.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19: They are provided when requested. They are not posted as a matter of course on the website, although the minutes are available through a protected portal on the website, accessible by board members only. The minutes and financial statements and budgets are discussed during the public portions of the board meetings, which are open to the public. The meeting dates and locations are posted on the
