Part III Line 4d: Information & Referral: ResourceWest staff and volunteers answer questions about everything from the need for food, clothing, shelter and healthcare, to where children will be going to school. We have always prided ourselves on not duplicating services. We collaborate with many agencies to ensure we are sending clients to the correct agencies for assistance. Project Starfish: Project Starfish offers intensive, one-to-one support to individuals and families to help them identify issues and set priorities. The program helps families with budgeting issues, makes referrals on low-cost car repair, provides housing and job search assistance, and helps find household items. Project Starfish is an opportunity to sit down with a caring and knowledgeable professional who will listen, ask probing questions, offer suggestions, provide information and referral, and help set priorities. Support is provided for making changes or reaching a goal. Project Starfish empowers individuals to bring about desired changes, and provides information that helps individuals along that path of change. Computer Technology Center (CTC): ResourceWest's Community Technology Center (CTC) is a space for people to learn new or additional computer skills, research educational opportunities, search for jobs, look for housing, and much more. The CTC has five computers with Internet access. It's open to the public.

Part VI Line 10: The Form 990 and all required Schedules are supplied to the organizations Executive Committee of its Board of Directors for review. This Committee includes the President, Vice President and Secretary, Treasurer, School District Liason, and Executive Director. All amounts are agreed to the organizations financial records. All answers to questions are verified by the Committee. Once this review has been completed and the appropriate changes are made, the Form 990 and required Schedules is offered to the remainder of the Board of Directors to review.

Part VI Line 12c: The Board of Directors regularly and consistently monitors and enforces compliance with the Conflict of Interest Policy. All potential conflicts of interest are brought to the Board's attention within one week of identification in accordance with the policy. The Board will make a determination related to the potential conflict of interest and either prohibit the action which constitutes the conflict or authorize the action which constitutes a conflict with conditions deemed appropriate by the Board.

Part VI Line 15: The Board of Directors is responsible for determining compensation for the Executive Director. The For Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice, see the Instructions for Form 990. Cat No 51056K Schedule O (Form 990) 2008 process includes reviews annually by the President and School District Liaison (supervisor to the Executive Director).

Annually, the President and School District Liaison determine a raise and bonus amount (if any) by reviewing comparability data for similar job descriptions and School District guidelines. These amounts are then proposed to the Executive Committee for review. The Executive Committee informs the Board of its decision on compensation.

Part VI Line 19: The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and financial statements available to the public upon request.
