Part III - Statement of Program Service Accomplishments (continued)

Outreach to stakeholder and community groups to build the Foundation into a credible, non-partisan source of information on educational issues in Washington State. This included the creation of the Excellent Schools Now Coalition, co-chaired by LEV Foundation, a broad-based group of organizations working together to improve the public education outcomes for all kids. Outreach also included the development and release of the Ready for Life? public education campaign.

Grants	-	Program Expenses	281,280
--------	---	------------------	---------

LEV Foundation conducted comprehensive public opinion research (including five focus groups and one statewide poll) to test public awareness and support for education issues and specific messages, including readiness for education reform

--------	---	------------------	---------

Support of direct and grassroots lobbying efforts to improve public education in Washington State. The efforts were successful in two key areas. First was the increase of funding by the State Legislature in 2008. The second was the State Board of Education's adoption of CORE 24, which urged the legislature to increase high school graduation requirements from 19 credits to 24 credits including a 3rd year of math.
