Form 990, Part VI, Line 10 - Organization's Process Used to Review Form 990

The Financial Statements from which this return is prepared are audited by our independent accounting firm and reviewed by the officers and board of directors. An actual copy of the 990 return is not reviewed by all board members. However, the Form 990 is prepared using the audited financial statements after the Board has reviewed them. The Executive Director and Chief Financial Officer receive and review the Form 990 prior to its filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy

The organization requires all employees, contractors, agents, officers, and members of the Board of Directors to disclose in writing all business and family relationships that might potentially create a conflict of interest. No member of the Board of Directors may vote on any matter which may directly or indirectly result in financial gain to that member, or which may conflict with that member's obligations to another organization's board of directors, or to that member's employer. Violations of conflict of interest policies are reported to the Compliance Officer and/or Executive Director for follow-up and resolution and, if required, corrective action and compliance.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official

Yes, the Board of Directors establishes the personnel policies, salaries, and benefits scales.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Process for Officers

Yes, the Board of Directors establishes the personnel policies, salaries, and benefits scales.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 - Governing Documents Disclosure Explanation

The Organization's audited financial statements are available upon request, either through copies provided or inspection at the organization's office. Additionally, the audited financial statements are submitted the Federal Audit Clearinghouse. Other organization documents (governing, conflicts of interest) are generally not made available to the public unless a specific need is shown and legal counsel for the Organization agrees to the disclosure.

Form 990, Part XI, Line 2c - Change in Financial Review Process

The review process has not changed from the prior year. The Board of Directors performs the duties usually assigned to the audit committee. The Board of Directors oversees the audit of the financial statements. However, the Executive Director selects the independent accountant where the audit fee is under $25,000. The Board of Directors approves the selection of the independent accountant.
