Part III—Statement of Program Accomplishments

- 1. Membership Outreach and Education. NARAL Pro-Choice Missouri was very active this fiscal year with coalition events focused on contraceptive access and political barriers to them. Our executive director, a constitutional lawyer, gave talks to members on judicial construction of constitutional rights, judicial philosophy, the current state of the federal judiciary, legislative developments in Missouri, and spoke on these issues to various university and law school audiences as well.

Our staff spoke on various college campuses and organized “Talking About Choice” sessions for members and activists.

We kept our membership engaged and informed by sponsoring informational house parties to brief volunteers and members on pending legislative priorities and on proposed ballot initiatives that would have banned almost all abortions in Missouri. We published three membership newsletters and sent regular email alerts about topics of concern to our members and network of activists. We also tabled or marched at various parades and community fairs. We gathered thousands of petition signatures from our members and from concerned citizens about pharmacy-refusal laws, did crowd canvassing, and engaged in a variety of protest activities against anti-contraceptive policies.

Expenses - $28,203

- 2. Legislative. NARAL Pro-Choice Missouri is a constant resource for legislators and policymakers. We provided legislators with a comprehensive legal and policy analysis packet that included parsing of the language of each bill of concern to us, as well as health-related statistics and fact sheets. We testified on several bills of particular concern and procured witnesses for several hearings. We also made legislative visits on a constant basis from January through May and scheduled an annual day at the Capitol for our activists. Working with our allies, we strive to craft a strategy each year to advance pro-choice bills and to inhibit the progress of anti-choice bills. During this fiscal year, we proactively drafted and recruited Senate and House sponsors for the Conscientious Pharmacist Act, which would require Missouri pharmacists to fill legal birth-control prescriptions without hassles, lectures, or delays. We also co-hosted a Legislative Accountability session targeting a new state senator to persuade him to support a “Prevention First” legislative approach and to secure his promise to vote against anti-choice and anti-birth control measures. We presented legislators with thousands of petitions on a variety of bills and worked legislative phonebanks.

As a result of all of our legislative efforts, not a single piece of anti-choice legislation was passed.

Expenses - $16,922

3. Trainings. We sponsored trainings in messaging about the issue of choice, the political threats to contraceptive access and access to abortion, and in grassroots action statewide. We trained canvassers, phone bankers, and writers of letters to the editor in how to talk most effectively about our issues.

Expenses - $11,281

Total Program Expenses - $56,406
