During the year ended April 30, 2007 the organization sold the home for elederly women that it had operated for many year. The proceeds from the sale of the home, the funiture and fixtures were deposited into an investment account which was later transferred to the Sangamon County Community Foundation as a donor advised fund. This transferred occurred during the year ended April 30, 2008. This caused investment income to remain high and the contributions from the public and government to decrease. Going forward this should not occur since they no longer hold the investments.
