Part 1 - Question 2: CorpCare Distributions, Inc. distributes its contributed merchandise through a network of governmental and charitable organizations.

CorpCare regularly monitors these organizations through site visits and follow up reports from the organizations as to how the merchandise was either used by the organization or distributed to those in need.

Part 2 - Questions 1(g) and 1(h): Various manufactures, retailers and wholesalers donate merchandise (primarily clothing, bed and bath items, books, household goods and other softgoods) to CorpCare for its gifts in kind program. These donated items are then sorted and redistributed to people in need through other governmental and charitable organizations. Merchandise is never sold and must be used for the care of or given to the poor, the ill, the elderly or children. Merchandise is typically distributed by participating agencies either through local clothes closets, food pantries, homeless shelters, church or school programs.

Various manufactures, retailers and wholesalers donate merchandise (primarily clothing, bed and bath items, household goods and other softgoods) to CorpCare for its gifts in kind program. CorpCare takes these donated items, sorts and then redistributes these to people in need through its network of other non profit and governmental organizations. This merchandise is never sold and must be used for the care of or given to the poor, the ill or children. Most donating corporations provide CorpCare with a valuation of the merchandise they contributed either based on their cost basis or some other valuation method. When no valuations are provided by the donor (which rarely happens), CorpCare estimates a value by comparing the merchandise donated to similar merchandise being sold in retail stores or through on-line retailers.
