	The University is a co-educational liberal arts university offering graduate and undergraduate degrees. It has Level III membership in the Commission of Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. The University's purpose is to provide opportunities for higher education in a Christian atmosphere. The university provided education services to 2,184 students. North Greenville University believes that the truths found in Holy Scriptures permeate every aspect of reality. All truth is ultimately from God. Therefore, a commitment to academic excellence can be an integral component in the maturation of one's faith. Faculty members meet regularly to study ways in which matters of faith can be brought into the classroom experience. Students are encouraged to participate in the process of integrating faith and learning. North Greenville University strives to be a place where graduates will leave with both and understanding of their chosen fields of endeavor and an appreciation for how the truths of scripture apply to those areas. The University offers the following degrees: the Bachelor of Arts degree, the Bachelor of Science degree, the Master of Business Administration degree, and the Master of Christian Ministries degree. Within the undergraduate degrees there are 31 program options and choices of major.
