SPS Program (SPSLF) - Strengthening Pharmaceutical Systems focuses on four key results: Improving governance in the pharmaceutical sector, Strengthening pharmaceutical management systems to support public health services, Containing the emergence and spread of antimicrobial resistance, and expanding access to an improved use of essential medicines. To help meet goals relating to the key result areas, the SPS Program is building on the successes of a predecessor program, RPM Plus, while expanding the range of technical areas to include financing, pharmacovigilance, pharmaceutical care, integration of new health technologies, and increased use of the private sector, among others. MSH will accomplish this enhanced program of activities by collaborating with a number of new partner organizations. As we work toward the overall goal of SPS, the SPS team is striving to advance the science and "art" of strengthening pharmaceutical management systems. The SPS Program provides a great opportunity for MSH and USAID to continue supporting developing countries in their quest to increase access to essential medicines and facilitate the scale up of vital treatment programs.
