Form 990, Part I, Line 1 - Briefly describe the Organization's mission or most significant activities:

Summit House, Inc. (the Organization), located in North Carolina, is a non-profit organization which operates three residential facilities for female offenders and their children and a day reporting program. The Organization has reorganized its residential sites into three separate 501(c)(3) organizations. Each organization maintains an independent Board of Directors. The corporate site provides administrative and management services as determined necessary by the separate residential corporations. The corporate site Board of Directors is comprised of members of each residential site Board of Directors, along with other at-large members.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Briefly describe the organization's mission:

Summit House is a residential alternative-to-prison program for mothers convicted of a non-violent crime and their minor children. Instead of mom going to prison and her children going into foster care or being shuffled between family or friends (sometimes many different people), mom and her kids are able to remain together as a family at Summit House while mom works towards putting their lives back together.
