1. For Part VI, Section B, Line 12c, the Conflict of Interest policy is very well defined in our bylaws. However, we don't currently have a process in place to routinely monitor this. By the end of the year, we plan to put in place an annual process whereby each Board member will complete a written form of disclosure.

2. For Part VI, Section C, Line 19, the Foundation publishes its bylaws on its public website. Any changes to the bylaws are reviewed by the members before changes are made, and those changes are also published on the public web site. All agendas and meeting minutes for the governing body are posted on the public website. At least once per year, the governing body holds an open board meeting for the members and reports on the financial status of the foundation. The conflict of interest policies, election policies, and all other policies of the Foundation are listed in the bylaws, which are on the public website.

3. For Part VI, Section A, Line 6, 7a, and 7b, the members are those who become dues-paying members of the organization and they vote in elections for seats in the governing body. The governing body must consult them on changes to the bylaws and provide to them at least once a year for an update on the Foundation, including the financial status.

4. For Part VI, Section A, Line 10, the Treasurer of the Foundation reviews and signs the 990 before it is filed. The governing body delegates that authority and responsibility to the Treasurer. However, this year, we decided to also begin sharing the 990 with our Board of Directors prior to filing the return.

5. For Part VI, Section B, Line 15, this does not apply as we do not compensate our officers and have no employees. The Executive Director is an employee of Indiana University and compensation is set by Indiana University.

6. For Part VI Section B, Lines 13 and 14, because we are so new, we don't have these yet, but we plan to create policies for whistleblowers and document retention before the next filing of our 990 return.
