Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The Board of Trustees delegates to a Compensation Committee the process for reviewing and determining the compensation of the Headmaster. The Compensation Committee annually reviews the Headmaster's compensation against information for the Head of School of comparable organizations. Periodically, approximately every three to four years, the Compensation Committee retains an independent compensation consultant knowledgeable in the field to provide additional detailed information regarding comparable compensation levels and practices. The process and discussion is documented in the records maintained by the Compensation Committee. The Compensation Committee annually makes a recommendation to the Board meeting in executive session regarding the Headmaster's compensation, which discusses and votes on the Compensation Committee's recommendation. The Headmaster annually reviews comparable information for key employees, and discusses that information with the Compensation Committee.
