The Frisch School has one major program service accomplishment which is the education of high school students in a dual curriculum program of college preparatory studies and Judaic Studies. More than 650 students attended The Frisch School in 2008-2009. We educate our children in a climate that balances the students' academic, social and emotional developmental needs. We have a diverse, hardworking, dedicated faculty who display an awareness of the cognitive and developmental stages of our students. During their four years at Frisch, they grow intellectually, socially and religiously while completing a rigorous dual curriculum, as well as participating in a full range of after school activities that provide students with opportunities to develop their interests and talents, as well as providing them with a sense of achievement and personal growth. Our students are athletes, writers, musicians, actors, dancers, they perform community outreach, social action and community work as well as compete in a full array of academic competitions.
