Procedure for Monitoring Grants in the U S	Part I, Line 2	Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 Springside School subscribes to the NAIS Principles of Good Practice in Financial Aid Administration and has incorporated these into its school-wide financial aid policy This policy 1) supports Springside's commitment to access and diversity, 2) enables Springside to enroll the best and brightest of its applicants regardless of need, 3) enables Springside to maintain and increase enrollment during a period of economic uncertainty and intense competition among schools 1) A financial aid budget is set each year by the Trustees of Springside School using income from endowed funds and operating revenue In setting the budget, the Board considers the level of need already existing in the school based on the previous year's allocations, as well as proposed tuition increases 2) Springside strives through its publications and face-to-face contacts to publicize and explain its financial aid program and to disclose all information pertaining to the cost of a Springside education 3) Allocation of financial aid funds is carried out by a Committee of Admission Officers and the Director of Finance and Operations, files are maintained by the Admissions Assistant 4) Springside School does not discriminate in its financial aid allocations on the basis of race, color, religion or national origin, Springside does not use financial need as a consideration in determining a student's eligibility for admission, Springside uses a uniform methodology to assess annually, in a consistent and equitable manner, each family's ability to pay for education a) Springside recognizes that primary responsibility for financing a student's education rests with the family, and that the family will have sought funds from all sources including employment, relatives, assets, and the Ellis Foundation (if eligible) in addition to seeking aid from Springside b) Assessment of need is determined by the School and Student Service for Financial Aid (SSS) in Princeton, New Jersey, following the family's submission of a completed Parents' Financial Statement, supplemented by a copy of the most recent IRS 1040 form and a recent paystub to verify earnings Assessment of need may require further verification No financial aid award will exceed a family's demonstrated need c) In awarding aid, the Committee takes into account the number, ages and schools of children, additional dependents, all sources of income including the student's own income, debts and unusual expenses, spending priorities, and whether a second working parent is contributing to family income where possible d) In cases of divorce or separation, Springside requires a completed Parents' Financial Statement from the non-custodial parent, whether or not the non-custodial parent shares in the cost of education If the student resides with a step-parent, Springside requires a PFS from the step-parent 5) Springside strives to make awards as close to demonstrated need (based on the PFS) as possible, but also expects that each family will contribute an appropriate portion of tuition and fees a) Exceptions to this are the specially endowed Neighborhood Scholarship Competition winners in grades six and up, whose aid may consist of full tuition, as long as there is demonstrated full need 6) Awards are made on a one-year basis and require re-application every year Families already in the school have priority over new families, as long as they meet the application deadline Springside is committed to supporting a student through graduation at the same level of funding unless there is a change in financial circumstances a) An award is contingent upon the family's meeting its financial obligation to Springside for the current year b) Springside School does not set different standards of behavior or academic performance for financial aid recipients, high academic standards and exemplary citizenship are expected of all students However, students on academic or disciplinary probation may lose their eligibility for Financial Aid, at the discretion of the Head of School 7) Springside has a formal review procedure for families who wish to request additional funding, which requires a written appeal and a second meeting of the Financial Aid Committee 8) Springside safeguards the confidentiality of all financial information supplied by a family, and shall refrain from and discourage others from making any public announcement of the amount of financial aid awarded to a student
