Other Information	Part IV	At the March Board of Governors meeting the spending policy is reviewed and approved for the next fiscal year. Based on the approved policy, the Coordinator of Special Events and Fundraising reviews the fund balances and determines the amounts available to be provided to the College for scholarships. A Foundation Financial Aid Award Authorization, which lists the individual scholarship funding the disbursements, the eligibility criteria for the scholarships and the award amounts is then approved by the Director of Development and the Director of Grants. The report is forwarded to Financial Aid and scholarship applications are made available to students. Applications are accepted in early spring (April/May) through mid June. The Financial Aid department determines eligibility based on set criteria, such as credits completed at the college, GPA, financial need, etc. and then applicants are matched with the criteria on the approved report to determine which students will be awarded scholarships. The College has the responsibility of determining each scholarship recipient.
