Form 990, Part I, Line 1 - Briefly describe the Organization's mission or most significant activities:

The Culver Academies is a preparatory boarding school with cutting-edge academic programs, excellent athletic teams, almost limitless opportunities in the Arts, competitive academic teams, its own Black Horse Troop and a summer program that teaches leadership to nearly 1400 children from all over the world. Culver's mission is to educate its students for leadership and responsible citizenship in society by nurturing the whole individual--mind, body and spirit--through integrated programs that emphasize the cultivation of character. Culver embodies an exciting combination of inspirational tradition and inspiring innovation in its programs and its governing philosophy, with an emphasis on critical thinking, problem solving, leadership, wellness and a healthy emphasis on integrity and developing character. With over 100 years in business, our high ideals and high expectations create a challenging and rewarding environment for students.

Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Briefly describe the organization's mission:

Culver educates its students for leadership and responsible citizenship in society by developing and nurturing the whole individual--mind, spirit, and body--through integrated programs that emphasize the cultivation of character. Culver offers challenging programs in our classrooms and on the athletic fields and a strong sense of community. Culver creates opportunities for students to practice critical thinking and problem-solving to deepen understanding. Our integrated wellness program helps students understand and practice healthy lifestyles. Our commitment to spiritual development includes required weekly religious services. We are a community who believes in educating its students in the virtues of wisdom, justice, courage and moderation. Culver's philosophy is embodied in its Honor Code, its student leadership systems, and Ethics and Service-Learning requirements for graduation. We have high ideals and equally high expectations.
