There are several programs included in this line item. The largest are the services that IPHCA provides to its membership as required by its funding through HRSA's 330 health center program. In addition IPHCA receives several grants from the Illinois Department of Public Health to perform services for the following programs: Breast and Cervical Cancer, Oral Health Network, Cooperative Recruitment, and Emergency Preparedness. Also included in this line item are the costs for IPHCA to provide services to its membership.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 6 and 7a, Governing Body and Management

IPHCA's tax returns are prepared by the Chief Financial Officer. After completion and review by the Chief Executive Officer, the forms are given to IPHCA's independent public accounting firm for further review. Once that step has been completed the return is distributed to the company's Board of Directors who are given one week to review and comment on the return. The final step is submission to the Internal Revenue Service.
