Form 990 is being filed late for the following reasons -

As a "volunteer treasurer" I did not start on the new form early enough and the form proved to be far more difficult than the previous forms. As my "full time" job took more and more time I did not find the time to complete this form.

SECTION B - 12c

As board members change jobs (this is rare as most are retired) they self-report any new requirement(s) that could involve a possible conflict of interest. Anytime the possibility of a "conflict of interest" issue comes up the individual board member will excuse themselves from the meeting until that issue is resolved by the remaining members.

SECTION B - 15b

Compensation for our two part-time employees is determined by comparing their experience, previous employment, "gifts" they bring to the position along with their salary requests. (Both employees currently consider part of their jobs as "giving back" to the community in which they reside and "pay back" for the education their children received while attending Davenport Community Schools.)
