Form 990-EZ Part III

The Waterloo Fund for Excellence was created in 1989 as a section 509(a) (3) entity to support charitable projects for the Waterloo Community School District. The Waterloo Community School District is located in Waterloo, Iowa and is a public school district with over 10,000 students. The first project for this entity was to fundraise donations for the construction of the new Waterloo Memorial Stadium to support athletics in the Waterloo Community School District. The Fund for Excellence continues to exist to support future charitable projects to support the students of the Waterloo Community School District. At this time there are no assets or current year receipts or expenditures for this entity.
