Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Program assistance, information services, and publications for federal, state and local criminal and juvenile justice agencies, as well as federally recognized Indian Tribes:

JRSA administered 4 grants and cooperative agreements for 2 agencies of the U.S.

Department of Justice. Under these grants and cooperative agreements, JRSA prepares a Directory of Justice Issues in the States; publishes quarterly issues of a newsletter for members and others interested in criminal justice issues; maintains a database of state member activities; provides assistance and training in a number of areas, including program evaluation, statistical forecasting and modeling, web site development, and crime mapping; performs special studies and maintains specialized web sites for federal agencies.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

Criminal justice training and technical assistance projects:

JRSA personnel provided training in a number of technical areas through workshops and on site consultation. Additionally, technical assistance and evaluation services were provided under a state agreement.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 6 - Explanation of Classes of Members or Shareholder

JRSA has two classes of membership: state representatives and members. There is one state representative from each state, district, or U.S. territory. Each state representative is the director of the Statistical Analysis Center (or a functionally equivalent agency) in his/her state.

Name of the organization Justice Research and Statistics
Association, Inc.

Employer identification number

Form 990, Part VI, Line 7a - How Members or Shareholders Elect Governing Body

The governing body (the Executive Committee) is elected by the state representatives discussed in Question 6. Each state representative has one vote. Members from other membership classes do not vote. Non-voting members cannot be elected to an office of the Association; however, each year the President appoints someone from this class of members to the Executive Committee, and this appointed delegate has voting rights as the representative of the other membership classes.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 10 - Form 990 Review Process

The Form 990 is prepared by an independent public accounting firm. The draft form prepared by the accounting firm is reviewed first by the Director of Finance and Administration. Her edits, if any, are incorporated into the form which is then ready for filing. The review by Management occurs before the return is filed.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts

Executive Committee members complete conflict of interest forms annually. The forms are reviewed by the Director of Finance and Administration and Executive Director for compliance with the Conflict of Interest policy.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Review & Approval Process for Officers & Key Employees

Compensation of the Executive Director is evaluated and approved annually by the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee obtains comparable salary data for the Executive Director and other key employees from the ASAE (American Society of Association Executives) Executive Compensation report and the Hay Group, a global management consulting firm. The Hay Group provides job evaluation methodology, including a range of compensation drawn from their widespread compensation database for each position at JRSA.
