American Academy of Otolaryngology Head & Neck Surgery, Inc's mission:

Academy

The American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery (AAO-HNS) is the world's largest organization of specialists who diagnose and treat disorders of the ear, nose, throat, and related structures of the head and neck representing more than 11,500 members. The medical disorders treated by our physicians are among the most common that afflict all Americans, young and old, including chronic ear infection, sinusitis, snoring and sleep apnea, hearing loss, allergies and hay fever, swallowing disorders, nosebleeds, hoarseness, dizziness, and head and neck cancer.

The Academy exists to serve, represent, and advance the professional, socioeconomic, and legislative interests of otolaryngologist—head and neck surgeons and their patients. On Capitol Hill and across the country, we work closely with our members to monitor and shape federal and state legislation that affects the specialty. We advocate within government and the private sector for quality care and offer essential resources to assist otolaryngologist-head and neck surgeons in their practices. As a community of professionals, we provide opportunities to network with colleagues and help patients access our members' expert care. Member involvement is key and supported through our many committees, our grassroots Board of Governors, and our Section for Residents and Fellows in Training. Our OTO EXPO, held in conjunction with the AAO-HNSF Annual Meeting each year, showcases the world's largest exposition of products and services for the specialty.

The Academy shares a common vision and mission with the American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery Foundation. Our Vision: Empowering otolaryngologist-head and neck surgeons to deliver the best patient care. Our Mission: We help members achieve excellence and provide the best ear, nose, and throat care through professional and public education, research, and health policy advocacy.
