| Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Ine 12c | | Board of Trustees Each member of the Board of Trustees must annually read and sign the Conflict of Interest and Related-Party Transaction Policy and Dislosure Form (Board Conflict Policy) The Board Conflict Policy gives examples of conflict of interest. When a conflict exists, the Board Conflict Policy delineates a dislosure procedure that requires the board member to report the conflict to the President who refers the information to the Nominating and Board Review Committee for investigation and for a recommendation to the full Board of Trustees Employees Our Conflict of Interest policy (Policy) is stated in our Employee Handbook All regular full and part time employees (which includes the President and key employees) must read the Employee Handbook their first week on the job and annually thereafter, and they must sign a statement that they have read it and are in compliance with its policies which includes the Conflict of Interest policy. The Policy gives examples of conflict of interest. When a conflict exists, the Policy instructs employees to disclose the conflict to their supervisor. Supervisors are instructed in the Supervisors' Policy Manual to confer with their supervisor and the human resources director who together will determine if a conflict exists, to what extent, and the appropriate course of action. If the problem cannot be resolved at that level, the matter will be presented to the President for determination. |
