Served over 1,000 low income Children (determined by free or reduced lunch) in the City of Atlanta School System daily by providing them with before and after school care within the schools. Service included a nutritious snack daily, 205 units of snacks per child or over 205,000 snacks. Provided affordable childcare for working parents during the school year. Provided homework assistance and educational tutoring for All students. Through this program we increased attendance for students enrolled in this program for the schools and provided enrichment activities for these students to increase their learning in nontraditional ways. Our program increased parental involvement in the schools. We increased community awareness and involvement by partnering with other organizations in the community. Our program enabled opportunities for students to meet or exceed Georgia performance standards, for which we provided incentives to the students for improved CRCT testing.
