Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		To ensure that there are no conflicts of interest in the purchase of goods or services from board members, faculty and staff, and parents, all transactions must be arms-length, to include competitive bidding. The school does not purchase goods or services from any member of the Board, any spouse, or child or parent of a Board member, or any business in which the Board member or his or her spouse, child or parent has a significant financial interest without competitive bidding, full disclosure and prior approval of any such transactions by the Board in a regular meeting or special meeting called for that purpose.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		In 2006 the selection and decision on compensation of the current Headmaster was the result of a 3rd party search and a review and approval by the Board of Directors. The selection and decision on compensation of the 3 school principals and the Business Manager were reviewed and approved by the Headmaster and then by the Board of Directors. In 2006, the Board of Directors hired the Paideia Institute to conduct a search for a Headmaster. Over the next 3 years, the Headmaster chose the lower school, middle school and upper school principals and the Business Manager all of which were approved by the Board of Directors.
