Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 10		When the organization's CPA firm has completed preparation of the Form 990, a draft of the form is provided to the Chief Financial Officer, Board Treasurer and the Finance Committee for review and discussion. Following this review and any resulting revisions, the Treasurer approves the form and authorizes the CPA firm to finalize the return for signature and filing.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		Prior to the beginning of each new fiscal year Board meetings, the Board members are presented with the School's Conflict of Interest Policy to review and sign.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The Board's Executive Committee determines the compensation and benefits of the Head of School. The Executive Committee will review comparability data to substantiate their decisions in the future. The approved compensation package is written in an annual or multi-year Employment Contract, signed by both the Board Chair and the Head of School. For other officers or key employees of the organization, the Head uses comparability data, and personal interviews and observations, to determine the compensation of each person. The board approves the total compensation amount of the organization each year in the Budget process, but not each individual's compensation.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The school's financial statements are available to the public via the Guidestar website, which gets its information from the Form 990 filed with the IRS. Members of the school's parent body, alumni, and certain other individuals receive a printed copy, via mail, of selected, summarized Balance Sheet and Income Statement data, in the School's annual printed State of the School report. Donors, or other individuals, at their request, receive a copy of the latest available Audited Financial Statements and/or Form 990 tax return. We currently do not make the school's governing documents or conflict of interest policy available to the public.
