The Friends of Davis County Children's Justice Center is a supporting organization to The Davis County Children's Justice Center. The mission statement of The Davis County Children's Justice Center states: "The Center also has an associated 501(c)(3) Friends Board which raises funds in the community to support the programs of the Center. The Friends have no role in setting policy or even in advising the Center Director and the Director has no authority over the funds raised by the Friends." Therefore the Friends only record the amounts of the assistance, but do not determine the eligibility for the assistance, nor are there any criteria for the assistance. The funds are applied by The Davis County Children's Justice Center based entirely on their needs.
