ARTICLE 1. OFFICES

The principal office of the corporation shall be located at its principal place of business or such other place as the Board of Directors (the "Board") may designate. The corporation may have such other offices, either within or without the state of Washington, as the Board may designate or as the business of the corporation may require from time to time.

ARTICLE 2. MEMBERSHIP

2.1 No Members

The corporation shall initially have no members.

2.2 Membership

Membership classes, the manner of election or appointment of members, the qualifications and rights of each class of members, and dues for members may be established by amendment to the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws.

ARTICLE 3. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

3.1 General Powers

The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors.

3.2 Number and Terms

The Board shall consist of not less than four or more than 25 Directors, the specific number to be set by resolution of the Board. The number of Directors may be changed from time to time by amendment to these Bylaws, provided that no decrease in the number shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent Director.

3.3 Qualifications

Directors should be representative of a cross-section of the community such as (a) one or more representatives of public education, (b) two or more executives from private business or industry, and (c) two or more executives from community organizations. Directors may have such other qualifications as the Board may prescribe by amendment to these Bylaws.

Attendance of each Director at all formally convened meetings is required. Three consecutive unexcused absences will result in the termination of any Director's tenure.

3.4 Election of Directors

3.4.1 Initial Classification

At the organizational meeting of the corporation, the Directors named in the Articles of Incorporation shall classify themselves into three groups to serve staggered terms of office as follows: approximately one-third of the Directors shall serve for a term ending two years from the date of the first annual meeting of the Board; approximately one-third of the Directors shall serve for a term ending one year after the first annual meeting of the Board; and approximately one-third of the Directors shall serve for a term ending as of the date of the first annual meeting of the Board.

3.4.2 Successor Directors

After the initial, classification, approximately one-third of the number of Directors fixed by or in the manner provided by these Bylaws shall be elected each year at the annual meeting of the Board by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Directors then in office (including those Directors whose terms expire on the date of the meeting) to replace that group of Directors whose terms expire each year.

3.5 Terms of Office

With the exception of the Directors initially classified, each group of Directors shall be elected for terms expiring on the date of the annual meeting of the Board three years subsequent to their election and until their successors are elected and qualified. Any Director may request to serve consecutive terms.

3.6 Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Board shall be held during the month of October on a date chosen by the President/Chair of the Board or the Board for the purposes of electing Directors and officers and transacting such business as may properly come before the meeting. If the annual meeting is not held on the date designated therefore, the Board shall cause the meeting to be held as soon thereafter as may be convenient.

3.7 Regular Meetings

By resolution, the Board may specify the date, time and place for the holding of regular meetings without other notice than such resolution.

persons authorized to call special meetings may fix any place either within or without the state of Washington as the place for holding any special Board or committee meeting called by them.

3.9 Meetings by Telephone

Directors may participate in a meeting of the Board or any committee of the Board via conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation via such equipment shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

3.10 Place of Meetings

All meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation or at such other place within or without the state of Washington designated by the Board, by any persons entitled to call a meeting or by a waiver of notice signed by all Directors.

3.12 Waiver of Notice

3.12.1 In Writing

Whenever any notice is required to be given to any Director under the provisions of these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation or applicable Washington law, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board need be specified in the waiver of notice of such meeting.

3.12.2 By Attendance

The attendance of a Director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

3.13 Quorum

One-third of the number of Directors fixed by or in the manner provided by these Bylaws shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any Board meeting. If a quorum is not present at a meeting, a majority of the Directors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

3.14 Manner of Acting

The act of the majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board, unless the vote of a greater number is required under these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation or applicable Washington law.

3.15 Presumption of Assent

A Director present at a Board meeting at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his or her dissent or abstention is entered in the minutes of the meeting, or unless such Director files a written dissent or abstention to such action with the person acting as secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof, or forwards such dissent or abstention by registered mail to the Secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent or abstain shall not apply to a Director who voted in favor of the action.

3.16 Action by Board Without a Meeting

Such written consents may be signed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original and all of which, taken together, shall constitute one and the same document. Any such written consent shall be inserted in the minute book as if it were the minutes of a Board meeting.

3.19 Vacancies

3.20 Conflict of Interest

3.20.1 Notice; Recusal

At such time, if any matter should come before the Board or any committee thereof in such a way as to give rise to a conflict of interest, the affected Director shall make known the potential conflict and, if advisable, withdraw from the meeting for so long as the matter shall continue under discussion, except to answer any questions that might be asked of him or her. Should the matter be brought to a vote, the affected Director shall not vote on it. In the event that, when advisable, he or she fails to withdraw voluntarily, the President/Chair of the Board shall require that he or she remove himself or herself from the room during the discussion and vote on the matter.

3.20.2 Board Approval
