Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a		The members do not have any right to directly vote on Corporation business. The Board of Directors is described as 11 Directors, nine of which are representing the NSB villages plus an at-large representative, one director recommended and employed by Arctic Slope Regional Corporation, and one director from the NSB School District. Indirectly the NSB Assembly controls the leadership and direction of the majority of the board seats. There are no elections for the College board, the Assembly makes appointments based on the recommendation of the NSB Mayor's Office and the ASRC and School District board leadership. The Mayor's Office, ASRC, and the School District forward their recommended appointees to the Assembly for consideration. The Assembly makes the appointments through their normal meetings.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 10		The Controller receives the 990 draft, compares it to the audited financial statement for reasonableness, and sends a signed copy back to the preparer for filing.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		We have a regular period of self-disclosure for Trustees and management to identify relationships that may give rise to a real or apparent conflict of interest. This is reinforced by review of high value transaction through the Grants and Business Office. Oversight on projects or transactions that potentially conflict with our policy is transferred to a disinterested third-party that is outside the regular process.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The college conducts a salary survey for all positions compared to national and local organizations. This data is considered as part of the annual budgeting process and submitted to the Board of Trustees as part of our budgeting process. The Trustees make a final determination as to the budget and have authority to adjust to the compensation levels as part of that process. All Trustee level budgeting and compensation decisions are documented in the meeting minutes.
