Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 4		The school's board established a limit on consecutive years a trustee may serve on the board (6) and a required one year "resting" period before a trustee may return to the board. Term limits and resting periods are recommended by the National Association of Independent Schools.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 10		The CFO and controller submit the Form 990 to the Audit committee for review. Form 990 is then submitted to the Board for final review and subsequent filing.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		The Conflict of Interest Policy is completed annually by the board of trustees, officers, directors and key employees. A designated board member distributes the Conflict of Interest Policy and then collects and reviews the completed forms. Any potential conflict of interest can be addressed by the interested person before the board members. After which, the interested person will leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest. The president shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested person or committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. After exercising due diligence, the Board of Trustees shall determine whether Lick-Wilmerding High School can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the Board of Trustees shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested trustees whether the transaction or arrangement is in Lick-Wilmerding High School's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination it shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement. If the Board of Trustees has reasonable cause to believe a trustee, officer, key employee or non-trustee member of a committee of the Board of Trustees has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform such person of the basis for such belief and afford him or her an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If, after hearing the response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Board of Trustees determines such person has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		An independent consultant presents to the Board of Trustees comparable salary data for the Headmaster. The salary data is based on experience, similar school size and metropolitan area. The board will then review, set and approve compensation for the Headmaster. This process occurs approximately every two years. Compensation for other top management officials is set by the Headmaster. The compensation is also based on comparable experience, school size and metropolitan area. This process also occurs approximately every two years.
