Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

HEAL Counseling Program: FVLC provided 710 hours of mental health services to 18 children and their primary caregivers to help heal from the trauma experienced in domestic violence. By providing intensive parent/child psychotherapy to young children who have been exposed to domestic violence, the HEAL Program helps these children overcome the trauma of that experience so that they can go on to have a healthy, normal development. The program also focuses on teaching these children's caregivers healthy and supportive parenting techniques so that they can learn to be more involved and nurturing with their children. Revenue includes both restricted grant revenue, and an allocated portion of FVLC's unrestricted income that covers the indirect costs of running the program.

Client Assistance Fund (CAF): FVLC managed the distribution of nearly $75,000 in expenditures to directly assist clients leaving abusive relationships by providing rental assistance, hotel stays, emergency transportation, food, and assistance with bills (including utility and medical). This fund remains a lifeline for many survivors who are struggling to get back on their feet following abuse. Revenue includes both restricted grant revenue, and an allocated portion of FVLC's unrestricted income that covers the indirect costs of running the program.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 10 - Form 990 Review Process

The Executive Director then presents it to the Finance Committee who may recommend other revisions. All revisions are integrated into the final draft, which is then made available to the full board by
