EXEMPT PURPOSE ACHIEVEMENTS	FORM 990, PART III, LINE 4A	Our mission is to make a genuine difference for the many lives we touch by optimizing our patients' healthcare experience. Renown Health Foundation pairs donor support with the community's most vital needs. Gifts to the Foundation make it possible for Renown to acquire state-of-the-art equipment, conduct important medical research, ensure that we have skilled clinical staff and provide community health and education programs. Since 1985, the Foundation has supported Renown Children's Hospital as the region's only Children's Miracle Network Hospital. This alliance of hospitals ensures that children have the specialized care they need and deserve. It also guarantees that the funds raised in the community stay in the community to provide care for local children. Over the last 25 years, CMN has raised more than $8 million to benefit Renown Children's Hospital. Funds from the Foundation also support the Renown Institute for Neurosciences, Renown Institute for Heart and Vascular Health and Renown Institute for Cancer. The Foundation also has memberships in the following non-profit organizations: Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, Solace Tree, Community Foundation of Western Nevada, Association of Fundraising Professionals, Reno-Tahoe Young Professional Network and the University of Nevada, Reno College of Extended Studies. Renown Children's Hospital teamed up with Kohl's Cares for Kids to educate kids and families about how to prevent head injuries with Save Your Skull. Save Your Skull is a year-round program that promotes seatbelt, helmet and pedestrian safety. Our program safety experts encourage everyone, not just kids, to wear helmets and stay safe whenever they take to the slopes or the sidewalks. In FY09 Save Your Skull educated children and adults in the community about the importance of helmet safety. Renown Health Foundation contributed $36,294 towards this program in fiscal year 2009. Renown Health Foundation supports classes designed especially for women such as early pregnancy education, breastfeeding support groups, infant care classes, a gestational diabetes.

Description of Process to Monitor Transactions for Conflicts of Interest	FORM 990, PART VI, QUESTION 12C	On an annual basis at or prior to the first regular meeting following the election of new board members, the members of the RENOWN HEALTH FOUNDATION Board are given an Annual Disclosure Statement. They are expected to perform a reasonable investigation into their business, financial, family or significant personal relationships to disclose any actual or potential conflicts of interest. If, in connection with a proposed transaction or arrangement involving a Renown Health entity, a board member discovers that an actual or possible conflict of interest has arisen that was not disclosed on the Annual Statement, then the board member must disclose the existence and nature of his or her financial interests to the remaining directors that are considering the proposed transaction or arrangement in a timely manner. If a board member discloses an actual or possible conflict of interest, the board member shall leave the board or committee meeting while the remaining board members discuss the financial interest. The remaining board members shall vote upon and decide whether a conflict of interest actually exists. If the remaining board members determine that a conflict does exist, then it must be addressed. The board will determine which of the following ways they will handle the conflict of interest. If the board has reasonable cause to believe that a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and give the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose. If the board determines, after hearing the member's response and performing any investigation warranted in the circumstances, that the member has, in fact, failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

Offices & Positions for Which Process was Used, & Year Process was Begun	FORM 990, PART VI, QUESTIONS 15A AND 15B	Renown Health's executive compensation is set by the Renown Health Compensation Committee. Members of this committee review and approve various employee pay practices and parameters, and compensation for the CEO and certain executives. Executives are defined as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Renown Health and those positions with substantial leadership roles as designated by the President and Chief Executive Officer and approved by the Board. The Compensation Committee is comprised of independent members of the Renown Health Board of Directors unrelated to and not subject to the control or undue influence of executives, with no material financial interest in transactions of the Company or any other perceived or actual conflicts of interest. Physicians and vendors are not considered to be independent as they are routinely in a position to exert undue influence for private benefit. The Compensation Committee members are appointed annually by the Chairman of the Renown Health Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee meets approximately five times per year. Meeting minutes are kept documenting the deliberations and decisions regarding the compensation arrangements. Total cash compensation for the organization's executives are targeted at competitive compensation levels, relative to market surveys of comparable healthcare organizations, based upon the level of performance required to achieve the targeted compensation levels. Base compensation and total cash compensation is reviewed at a minimum of every two years in comparison to the surveys for comparable business and responsibilities and adjusted as to maintain equity with the survey information. The following are the roles and responsibilities of the Compensation Committee: * Establish a clear and explicit compensation philosophy to guide decision making * Document rationale for exceptions to policy * Hire and supervise an outside consultant to gather data on competitive pay and pay practices * Insure the use of quantitative and qualitative information when setting compensation * Establish and approve the overall design of the executive compensation and benefits program based on the organization's compensation philosophy, including: * Understand all elements of the executive compensation program * Approve the Annual Pay Increase method and rate for staff * Determine the CEO's base and total compensation consistent with market data * Provide oversight and compensation approval for those positions with substantial leadership roles * Establish and approve CEO performance metrics * Establish the CEO's performance objectives * Approve executive incentive payouts for the CEO and those positions with substantial leadership roles based on organizational and individual performance * Establish and maintain appropriate safeguards to ensure reasonable compensation * Ensure that the pay program supports the tax-exempt mission and charitable purposes of the organization * Ensure adequate documentation at the time that compensation decisions are made, including: * Documentation of approval * Dates records were prepared * Dates records were approved * Terms of transaction approved * Members present during discussion * Members who voted on transaction * Description of comparability data and how it was obtained * Basis for decision when value exceeds comparability data * Description of actions taken by member with conflict of interest * Ensure compliance with the requirements for the Rebuttable presumption of Reasonableness. The Compensation Committee undertook the process outlined above for the fiscal year 2009 executive compensation.
