Form 990, Part III, line 4d	Other Program Services	Vista Del Mar's Community Based Services provide a broad spectrum of services for children, adolescents, young adults and families. The Agency, state-licensed and Council on Accreditation accredited, places more than 150 adopted children each year. Vista also evaluates, selects, and monitors qualified foster care parents for children up to 18 years of age. Prevention and Early Intervention services are offered through the parent and teacher counseling and education programs at many Los Angeles and Santa Monica-Malibu Unified School District Schools, and teen parent support programs are provided at local high schools. The Agency's Home-SAFE Division provides child care and provider training for state-licensed family child care homes, in-home family services for families with young children who are at-risk for child abuse and neglect, Early Head Start programs, and School Readiness programs for children from 0 - 5 years of age. Intensive in-home services are provided via the Agency's Connections/Wraparound program, which builds upon a family's strengths and support systems, the Multidisciplinary Assessment Team, which assures that all children newly detained by the Department of Children & Family Services receive a comprehensive mental health and psychological assessment, and Children's System of Care, which provides strength based, family centered support to children with serious emotional problems. Vista Del Mar also provides ongoing training to their clinical staff, including seminars provided by acclaimed therapists. Some of these trainings are made available to the local community at a nominal cost, which generates a nominal income for the organization. Expenses $ 10795720 including grants of $ 51561. Revenue $ 1331823.
