Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 10		The prepared 990 draft is circulated to the executive committee via the CFO. Once approved by the executive committee the CFO signs and files the 990 form.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c		The Schools Board of Trustees has adopted a conflict of interest policy to ensure that board actions are adopted free from any actual or appearance of conflict of interest. Trustees are expected to use common sense and good judgment in the exercise of their duties. While this list is not exhaustive, the following are common examples that could give rise to a potential or actual conflict of interest: A. A trustee or a member of the trustee's immediate family is related to any School employee or relative of an employee by blood, marriage or domestic partnership which employee or relative could be impacted by a matter to be considered by the Board. B. A trustee, or any entity by which the trustee (or a member of the trustee's immediate family) is employed or in which the trustee has a direct or indirect financial interest, stands to benefit from a School transaction, including without limitation receiving payment from the School for any contract, good, or service, other than in reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred on behalf of the School. C. A trustee, or a member of the trustee's immediate family, has a real property interest that could be impacted (either positively or negatively) by the School's operations. Following disclosure of an actual or potential conflict of interest, the Board Chair shall determine whether an actual conflict of interest exists, and, if so, the Chair shall refer the matter to the Executive Committee which shall determine how best to protect the School's interest. The Chair of the Board shall disclose his or her own actual or potential conflicts of interest to the remainder of the Executive Committee, who shall determine whether an actual conflict of interest exists and, if so, refer the matter to the Executive Committee, which shall determine how best to protect the School's interest. Each trustee must sign and date this Policy annually, at or before the first fall Board meeting.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The school uses the benchmarking tool provided by NAIS to compare and evaluate the compensation packages of similar positions in the area. In addition, the school hires an independent consultant that evaluates the compensation packages of several Heads of School in the area. The Executive Committee reviews both reports, evaluates the results and sets the new compensation for the Head of School. The Head of School reviews, evaluates and decides the compensation packages of the key employees.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19		The conflict of interest policy is part of School's employee manual. Every employee receives a copy of the employee manual and each employee signs a copy of the conflict of interest policy at the start of employment. The Financial Statements are available to the public upon request. The school makes its 990 available for public inspection without charge during regular business hours at the business office.
