Form 990, Part I, Line 1 - Briefly describe the Organization's mission or most significant activities:

The School's educational goal is for each student's learning to become a rich and subtle questioning of the world, not to mention a pleasure. The School is expressly intended for gifted children as measured by tests and/or demonstrable talents. The School does not give grades. Instead, teachers write detailed anecdotal reports twice yearly. Saint Ann's is fully departmentalized from fourth through twelfth grade. The School relies, ultimately, on the positive reinforcement of interest, motivation, ambition, enjoyment, and affection rather than arbitrary academic discipline. Saint Ann's deliberately integrates and highlights the arts- including dance, music, theater, and the visual and recreational arts- as central elements of the academic curriculum.
