Areyvut is committed to financial transparency and makes all documents including by-laws, board minutes, financial statements and information about our programs available to the public. We have some of that information currently available on our website and plan to add a section of our 990 Forms to the site in the near future. In the interim we provide information to any citizen who contacts us by phone, mail, e-mail or in any way and is interested in learning more about who we are, what we do, how we operate, etc.
