Name: FARGO-MOORHEAD CONVENTION & VISITORS BUREAU

Form 990, Part I, Line 1 - Briefly describe the Organization's mission or most significant activities:

The Fargo-Moorhead Convention & Visitors Bureau functions in a metropolitan community made up of two individual communities in two states. We exist to promote the Fargo-Moorhead area as a destination for groups of visitors involved with conventions, trade shows, and other business travel, as well as individual visitors and tour groups, so that our members and the community may serve them while they are here. We do this to strengthen the communities' economy, create employment, and generate tax revenue for the metropolitan community. We intend to provide marketing opportunities for the private hospitality sector so that our members might have access to potential clients. We will provide assistance to organizations and individuals in the community in soliciting and implementing meetings of their affiliations. We will also help to create externally-directed community marketing efforts. We serve the hospitality industry, visitors to our community, and local businesses who may bene
