ATTACHMENT I

Summary, Part I, #1:

Agency Mission: "To reduce drug and alcohol abuse and its stigma by providing guidance, education, and services to children, adults and families."

Significant Activities: We provide prevention and intervention programs in the schools, hospitals, homeless and domestic shelters, criminal justice settings (juvenile and adult) and workplaces. The Council is the front door to alcohol & other drug addiction treatment for the adult and youth medically indigent in 14 counties of North Texas. Outreach, screenings and assessments for adults and youth in need of substance abuse treatment is done to connect and engage those in need of services. Other programs include: case management programs to support special populations and high need clients. These include single women with children, the homeless, women partners of individuals leaving the prison system, CPS clients, drug court clients and the unemployed who are new to recovery.

The Recovery Resource Council has been in existence since 1957. In 2009, the Council employed approximately 60 staff, had over 28 different funding sources and had an operating budget of $3.9 million.

Community initiatives expansions in 2009 include:

- 1) Services to the homeless- Through a contract funded by Day Resource Center the Homeless, Tarrant County's premier Housing First Program for the homeless on Lancaster in downtown Fort Worth has expanded. Twenty-seven homeless individuals were placed into housing without preconditions, and in some cases the same day as program intake. Sixteen more individuals will be placed this year through the program's expansion. Clients in the program receive intensive case management and are engaged in services and treatment that address issues such as substance abuse, mental health or employment. This evidence-based model has been in place in northeastern United States for several years and has been judged to be very successful in reducing homelessness and in client integration into community services.

The Council was also awarded a grant to work to implement the City of Fort Worth's 10 year plan to end homelessness. This initiative works with substance abuse clients as well as those with mental health issues.

- 2) Services to Women- Through a federal grant offered from the Office on Women's Health (HHS), the Council has launched a new program to address the needs of the women partners of men who are recently released from prison. The program aims to provide comprehensive risk counseling and prevention case management services and facilitate access to HIV/AIDS prevention and support services.

ATTACHMENT II

Program Services (Part III, 4a):

- A) Case Management - Our special population case management programs serve a variety of clients. Our federally funded case management program housed at Union Gospel Mission continued for its fourth year. These clients are assisted by case managers and provided access to treatment for their addiction, as well as long term support to help them overcome barriers to maintain their sobriety. These services are comprehensive and may include financial assistance in rent, financial assistance with medical needs (prescriptions), transportation, child care as well as a variety of other needs. Recovery Resource Council partners with numerous local agencies to help provide a seamless continuum of care for clients working to overcome the illness of addiction.

Program Service Accomplishments (Part III, 4b):

- A) Prevention and Intervention - In FY 2008, the Council provided evidence-based research prevention life skill/education services in 165 schools in 18 school districts in Tarrant County, Texas. That was a 19% increase in number of schools served. In 2008, over 40,000 youth ages 5-17 received services provided by approximately 20 staff that dedicated themselves to this effort. The Council also sought to support the efforts of other agencies that provide services to children and youth by providing on-site life skills and drug and alcohol education to foster children housed at Catholic Charities, Presbyterian Night Shelter and at Community Centers.
- B) Camp L4 (Live, Love, Learn and Laugh) - During FY 2009, the Council provided three (5 day) weeks of day camp for youth ages 6-11 whose parents were involved in treatment or were residing in either a homeless or domestic violence shelter. Evidence-based intervention curriculum was matched to true camp activities such as canoeing, horseback riding and fishing. Staff ratio was approximately one staff for every high need youth. Two camps were done in the summer and one during spring break serving 75 children.
- C) Outreach, Screening & Assessments - Since 2004, our agency has served 12 counties in Region 3, providing screenings, assessments and referrals for clients seeking assistance with substance abuse and addiction. We operate as the front door to treatment, approving all inpatient substance abuse treatment admissions and extensions for state-funded treatment beds. Several of our staff, work off-site, seeing clients in the rural areas as well as local jails, shelters, and Child Protective Services offices. In FY 09, 3,209 adults and youth were screened for substance abuse issues; we have exceeded our annual target numbers for the past five years. In addition, two additional counties (Dallas and Collin) were added from additional federal funding that created treatment services for those individuals that had either methamphetamine problems or were involved in drug courts. This program allowed the Council to expand its number of counties served from 12 to 14.
