Friends of the Children-Portland was founded on the philosophy that every child has the potential to be successful if given the opportunity to experience a full range of life-enriching activities and relationships. The Organization is committed to creating these relationships, and believes that - one child at a time - we can change children's lives from the path of hopelessness to the road of hope. Friends of the Children-Portland employs full-time caring adults, called Friends, who each work intensively with an average of eight of our most vulnerable young children. With sensitivity and respect, the Friends work with the children on a comprehensive range of life skills, including problem solving, conflict resolution, and the importance of honesty, respect, and hard work. The Friends are positive role models who work with the children at school, at home and in the community. The Friends and children work on homework, go to sporting events, museums, libraries, to the beach and the mountains, volunteer in the community and participate in other activities that these children would have not otherwise experienced. The organization currently services approximately 340-350 young children. Through the efforts of the organization and especially the Friends, these children have broadened their view of the community and world, and have increased self-worth and positive attitudes. In addition, the children have increased academic scores and have decreased tardiness, absences, and expulsions from school. The expenses for program services are payments for services of providing disadvantaged youth with positive adult role models and the activities in which they participate.
