Form 990, Part VI, Line 15 A & B		US Russia Foundation for Economic Advancement and Rule of Law undertakes a rigorous process to ensure that the executive compensation it pays to its top management official and all officers and key employees of the organization is reasonable. In relevant part, the Board of Directors has established a compensation committee comprised of independent persons that have no personal interest in the proposed compensation arrangement. The USRF compensation committee must approve the compensation, without input or voting participation by the person whose compensation is being approved or by any other individual with a conflict of interest. The final determination is then documented in committee minutes. Those minutes will contain the terms of the proposed compensation and the decisions of those individuals who voted on the compensation.
