Form 990, Part III, line 4d	Other Program Services	The establishment of an International MBA program currently in its first semester with students from 21 countries. This ambitious program prepares students to compete in the increasingly global world of commerce as well as furthering understanding and connections among graduates. The funding of a program to advance Ethiopian Youth. With the contribution of dedicated funding, AFTAU has helped develop a coordinated continuum of educational activities for hundreds of Ethiopian youth from junior high school through university studies. This community involvement program provides intensive life preparation for a distressed immigrant population, offering the opportunity for full integration and advancement in Israeli society. Continued support for Jewish Studies including dedicated funding for the study of Yiddish Language, Literature, and Culture is helping to revive the Yiddish language as a medium for intellectual thought and scientific endeavor. TAU's summer Yiddish classes are the first of their kind in Israel, and attract students from around the world. Funding for Faculty Recruitment dedicated contributions furthered Tel Aviv University's campaign for "brain gain", funding the recruitment of young faculty from leading colleges and corporations around the world. Expenses $ 5286031 including grants of $ 5286031 Revenue $ 0
