Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 4		The Organization recently ratified its bylaws due to the dissolution of the Dartmouth Hitchcock Alliance (DHA) and the subsequent creation of the New England Alliance of Health (NEAH). Significant changes are as follows: The Organization shall now have only one class of member. There is no longer to be a Class B member, which had previously been reserved for DHA. The power of the Organization's board to take certain acts is no longer subject to the prior approval or ratification of DHA, NEAH, or any other organization. The nomination and election of members to the Organization's governing body is no longer subject to ratification by DHA, NEAH, or any other organization. Previously, attendance by the DHA member constituted a quorum at a board meeting. The bylaws have been revised to establish that attendance by fifteen voting members (of which at least ten shall be elected members) shall constitute a quorum. There is no longer a Class IV or Class V trustee. The Class IV trustee previously had been required to be the president of DHA or the president of DHA's designee, ex officio, with voting power. The Class V trustee previously had been an individual whose nomination was to be recommended to the Organization's nominating committee by the DHA member and to serve for a term of three years. The nomination of the Organization's CEO shall no longer necessitate approval by DHA. Furthermore, selection of senior management by the Organization's CEO need no longer be approved by DHA. The Organization's CEO is no longer required to participate with the CEOs of other DHA affiliates on the DHA senior management committee nor report to the president of DHA with respect to his or her responsibilities related to the activities of the DHA senior management committee.
