26-0611911Explanation for Not Filing on Time

Just prior to year end the association hired their first employee and many duties previously performed by volunteer board members were transferred to this individual. Prior to the due date of the return, this individual left the employment of the association around the time the tax return was due.

A new employee was hired after the due date of the return and was unaware that a return needed to be filed.

The impact of the change over in duties from volunteer board members to the newly hired employee and subsequent change in employees caused the organization to inadvertently fail to file the return timely.
