The corps competed at DCA National Championships in September of 2009. Forty members of varying ages received musical instruction in addition to the social bonding of membership. The teamwork of young teenage students with experienced adults resulted in increased maturity and experience for our younger members and continuing music education and increased physical activity for members of all ages. The corps performed at community events in Denton, Plano and Richardson Texas last summer with further performances planned for this coming summer.

Vigilantes are an all age organization with a twofold goal: to provide lifelong music education to all ages and to perform entertaining and competitive shows on a local and national stage.
