Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15		The Excelerate Foundation, Inc. believes that passionate, talented individuals who are committed to the mission of the Excelerate Foundation should be compensated for the time and expertise they are contributing to the foundation's work through their service on the Board of Directors. The Excelerate Foundation, Inc. also recognizes the time that goes into preparing for board meetings, both in reviewing issues of importance to the foundation, its governance and its grantees, and in traveling and spending time away from one's community and family. Therefore, the Excelerate Foundation, Inc. chooses to compensate board members in a manner consistent with their foundation duties, responsibilities and time commitment as well as consistent with customary and reasonable compensation for not-for-profit officers and directors. Excelerate Foundation chooses to compensate board members on an annual basis for both their ongoing annual board service and for each board meeting attended. Such compensation is reviewed annually by the Board of Directors. Compensation for meeting attendance is paid at the completion of each Board meeting. When setting the compensation levels for individuals noted in Part VII, the organization contracted with an independent consultant to perform a market study of compensation. These recommendations were utilized in determining the appropriate compensation. The Board of Directors maintain contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision making process.
