FIN 48 Footnote from Consolidated Audited Financial Statements		FASB ASC 740-10-25 requires that a tax position be recognized or derecognized based on a more-likely-than-not threshold for positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return FASB has deferred the effective date under FASB ASC 740-10-65 for nonpublic entities that have not already issued a complete set of US GAAP annual financial statements fully reflecting these requirements and are not consolidated entities of a public entity that applies US GAAP. This guidance will be required to be adopted for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2010. SURAs accounting policy for evaluating uncertain tax positions is to recognize tax positions if they are probable of being ultimately realized. The SURA does not believe there are any unrecognized tax benefits or liabilities that should be recorded.

Consolidated Audited Financial Statements	Line 12 and Form 990, Part XI	SURA receives a consolidated annual audit in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Consistent with SURAs majority and controlling interest in Jefferson Science. Associates LLC (JSA), the consolidated financial statements include the activities of SURA and the operations of JSA.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Lines 6 and 7		SURA is organized as a non-stock, non-profit corporation and has three categories of Members. Standard Members, Class Entity Members and Affiliate Members. Standard Members are institutions of higher learning or other complementary organizations that are exempt Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and desire full participation in SURA's activities and support its goals. Each Standard Member has one vote and is represented both on the Council of Presidents, which provides overall direction and leadership to the Corporation, and the Board of Trustees which manages the funds and business of the Corporation. Standard Members are admitted to the Corporation by the affirmative vote of the Council of Presidents Entity Members are for-profit entities which participate in some programmatic activities of the organization and support the goals of the Corporation. There are 3 classes of entity membership, A, B and C, but only Class A Entity Members have a vote and are represented on the Council of Presidents and the Board of Trustees. Class B and C Entity Members may attend the Board of Trustees meetings by invitation only and may participate in programmatic activities as permitted by policy and procedures. Affiliate Members are non profit Members and do not have a vote nor are they represented on the Council of Presidents or the Board of Trustees. Both the Standard Member and the Class A Entity Member are admitted to the Corporation by the affirmative vote of the Council of Presidents. All other membership categories are admitted by affirmative vote of the Board of Trustees.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 10		The CFO is responsible for assembling all information required to complete the Form 990 w hich is ultimately prepared and reviewed by the organization's independent accounting firm KPMG. A final review of the Form 990 is then conducted first by the CEO and then by the Chair of the SURA Finance and Audit Committee on behalf of the Board. Shortly before submitting The Form 990 to the IRS, an information copy is made available to each trustee of the SURA. Board of Trustees. A copy of the Form 990 is also provided to the Corporate Secretary as a permanent file copy for public access.

ldentifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c		It is SURA's policy that trustees, officers, committee members, staff, volunteers and others while acting on behalf of SURA, must avoid conflicts of interest. Even appearance of a conflict of interest must be avoided. Monitoring compliance with this policy is accomplished through a "Mandatory Conflict of Interest Disclosure Policy" which requires that all Board of Trustees, officers, senior staff as designated by the President, and other specific individuals who may be considered to be "disqualified persons" under Federal Regulation 53 4958-3 sign and submit on an annual basis a Mandatory Disclosure Statement to the Corporate Secretary. The Corporate Secretary is responsible for enforcing the Mandatory Disclosure Policy and is required to maintain and annually update a file of signed Mandatory Disclosure Statements. Disclosure Statements are distributed annually at the Fall Board meeting and second notices are sent one month later to non respondents. If the Corporate Secretary in consultation with SURA's General Counsel conclude that a conflict of interest exists the individual must not participate in the deliberations, consideration or vote in the transaction or matter at issue. A notation must be made in the minutes of any meeting at which deliberation, consideration or vote in the transaction or matter at issue is undertaken indicating that the individual with a conflict or potential conflict was excused for the meeting, took no part in any discussions pertaining to the transaction or matter, and refrained from voting on the transaction or matter.

ldentifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Line 15		The SURA Board of Trustees elects a Compensation Committee (committee) consisting of the SURA Chair of the Counsel of Presidents, the Chair of the Board of Trustees, the Chair of the Finance Committee, the past Chair of the Board of Trustees and/or the incoming Chair of the Board of Trustees. The committee is an independent body responsible for compensation review and approval of, or transactions with, SURA's top management officials, officers, and key employees per SURA's Compensation Policy and Intermediate Sanctions Compliance Policy. The committee solicits a Request for Proposal (RFP) for professional consulting services and selects among the RFP respondents the consulting firm that offers the best combination of professional qualifications, data survey approach, industry experience and proposed costs. The selected consulting firm must define the process to obtain appropriate data that includes compensation levels and other consideration paid by similarly situated organizations, both taxable and tax-exempt, for functionally comparable positions or transactions, the location of the other organizations relative to SURA's location, including the availability of similar specialties in the geographic area, independent compensation surveys by nationally recognized independent firms, and other relevant data when appropriate. The deliberations and decisions of the committee are facilitated and documented by the SURA Director of Administration and Human Resource Services. In compliance with the independent compensation analysis, the committee approves the salary range and specific salary of the SURA President and prepares formal correspondence amending the employment contract of the President The committee reviews and approves salary range recommendations of the President for other corporate officers and key employees. The most recent compensation study was performed in 2010 by Mercer, a nationally recognized compensation and benefits consulting firm. The study resulted in an Executive Compensation Review compliant
