2008 Form 990-EZ Item 20 Explanation:

The additional funds represent changes and corrections in investments from which the library uses interest, but does not touch the principal.

The $100,000 investment placed in the West Alabama Community Foundation a few years ago dropped in value to $98,109.00 in 2008-2009.

I am also reporting increases in the value of investments made for the library in the 1980's in Southern Company and what had been Scottish Power and is now Iberdola. They had, I thought, remained fairly constant for several years. When the recent changes occurred in the West Alabama Community Foundation, I checked more thoroughly than I had previously done into these investments. I discovered that I needed to make adjustments in value.

4960 shares in Southern Company were at $31.67/share at the end of September 2009 (end of fiscal year for the library) for a total value of $157,083.

1034 shares in Iberdola were at $38.05/share at the end of the September 2009 for a total value of $39,343.00.

I added $196,981.00 on line 20 to correct the value of those investments. Had I been more alert to changes in investments, I should have made adjustments earlier and will go back and do so if required, but these are funds that affect our budget only in terms of interest received from them. I will try to be more diligent about checking these figures from now on.
